ICONIC AWARDS 2023: Innovative Architecture – Call for entries

Frankfurt am Main, 1 March 2023

The registration phase for the international ICONIC AWARDS 2023: Innovative Architecture starts today. The awards of the German Design Council honour the best achievements in architecture, pioneering interior and product design, outstanding communication concepts and particularly innovative materials. The winners will be honoured at a festive awards ceremony on 4 October 2023 on the occasion of EXPO Real in Munich and will have the opportunity to network internationally.

The awards are open to architects, engineers, specialist planners, agencies and design firms, construction companies and real estate businesses, as well as manufacturers from the design and production sectors – projects must be submitted by 3 June 2022. The high-profile, international jury will award the “Best of Best”, “Winner” and “Selection” titles, as well as the special categories “Architects of the Year” and “Interior Designers of the Year” and the honorary prize “Architects’ Client of the Year”. Among the prize winners of the past years are Dorte Mandrup, Kengo Kuma, Herzog & de Meuron and Matteo Thun.

An award offers the winners the perfect communication occasion for their achievements, positions them as a successful player in an international environment and brings them to Munich for the awards ceremony in the context of the real estate fair EXPO Real.
